CO-OPERATIVE

Dyslexia – identifying and providing a supportive context

In this course practitioners will find out about Dyslexia – what it is and what to do if you suspect a child might have Dyslexia. We look at the definitions (and problems with definitions). We focus on how you can use assessment tools and measures to explore strengths and weaknesses and we look at a wide range of strategies and interventions, tailored to the needs of the child with Dyslexic difficulties.

- Half day training
- Suitable for: Primary Teaching and SEN-based staff

Max. 30 staff. Workshop-style.
